The Wasatch County 4-H Awards Banquet was held on Thursday, Nov. 1 at the Wasatch Middle School. Approximately 200 4-H members, parents and family members enjoyed a dinner of barbecued turkey and all the trimmings hosted by Debra Proctor, USU Extension Agent, and the County 4-H Office. An Awards Program was held in the Little Theater, where Kari Buys, Tyrene Rose, Tricia Gale, and Kendra Evans, Teen Council members, announced and presented the awards, under the direction of Val Warnick, USU Extension Agent.

The certificates and pins for the awards are donated to the 4-H program by the Utah Bankers Association, who were presented at the awards program by Jerry Guymon, Zions First National Bank. Certificates were given to all Jr. members, first year 4-H members and leaders. The following 4-H'ers received pins for completing four years of 4-H work: Nels Anderson, Natalie Beters, Marie Bunker, Cathy Carlile, Cheryl Carlile, Cathy Carlson, Jody Carlson, Brooke Clyde, Anna Crittenden, Craig Crittenden, Curtis Crittenden, Jenny Crittenden, Robb Dansie, Nikki Draper, Jeroldine Durtschi, Allen Gines, Valorie Gines, Joe Hansen, Sherida Horner, Kacy Knight, Janet McPhie Ashley Maak, Marci Price, Cheri Probst, Jody Probst, Kristen Probst, Christiana Seiter, Ryan Seiter, Carolyn Shelton, Jamie Smith, Kirk Sulser, Tracy Vincent, and Camille Ward.

Leaders in the Wasatch County 4-H organization were also given pins for increments of five years of service. Those receiving leader pins this year were: five year pins, Rhea Carlson, Robert Clyde, Deanna

Probst, and Val Warnick; Jerry Brisk received a 20 year pin. Special awards of savings accounts were given by First Security Bank for excellent work of 4-H Record Books. Those winning the savings accounts were: Jack Rose, Nicole Day, Stephanie Ridge, and Craig Bunker.

Receiving awards for their work in different project areas were: Rebecca Kinsel and Tyrene Rose, Achievement; Tausha Bunker and Colby Holmes, Ag. Program; Jenny Crittenden, Bread; Jenny Beendorfer, Curtis Crittenden, and Whitney Ward, Citizenship; Kendra Evans and Amy Spencer, Clothing; Kendra Evans and Rebecca Wren, Dairy Foods; Matt Adams, Jack Rose, and Christauna Rose, Entomology; Molly Wren, Fashion Revue; Shawntelle Holmes, Camille Ward, and Teresa Webb, Foods and Nutrition; Tonya Gale and Tricia Gale, Horse; Tausha Bunker, Kari Buys, and Tricia Gale, Leadership; Amy Ward, Safety; Brooke Clyde and Scott Hendrickson, Swine; Amy Spencer, Consumer Education.

The Wasatch County 4-H Office would like to thank all the 4-H leaders and parents who help their kids with the 4-H program. If you want more information about 4-H or how you can join 4-H, contact the County 4-H Office at the courthouse, 654-3211. 4-H is sponsored by Utah State University Extension Service and Wasatch County.

All 4-H and Jr. members, who were not in attendance at the Awards night to receive their Certificates or pins, can pick them up at the Extension Office in the courthouse between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Please pick them up as soon as possible.
